

Auditioning at Rugby Theatre

All Rugby Theatre Auditions are open to members and non-members.

If you are cast you must become a member of Rugby Theatre Society and a small membership fee will be charged. Rugby Theatre is a voluntary, amateur society.

We are always keen to welcome new members and all our auditions are open to anyone. Be prepared for your audition. Find out what the audition pieces are and ask the Director how they see a particular part being played. All auditionees for a singing part in a musical will be asked to demonstrate that they can sing and follow a short dance routine. Bring a song that shows off your range if you haven't got an audition piece, and make it a piece that you know well. A good confident rendition of something you know well is better than a weak attempt at something you don't really know.

A cast is decided on their audition, and the final decision is the Director's. If you ask the Director why you were not cast, you will get an honest answer and helpful criticism. If you are dyslexic or have a problem with sight reading, contact the Director and let them know well before the audition. They will give you any help you may need.
