Character Breakdown

Corey Palmer (senior)

The narrator of the show. He is the older version of Corey, now living in the year 2000 and reminiscing about his high school days in the 1980s.

Corey Palmer (junior)

The hero of the musical. He is an ordinary, likeable senior in high school that is dealing with typical issues including his love for Tiffany Houston.

Alf Bueller

One of Corey Junior's best friends. A likeable teenager just coming out of childhood and beginning adulthood.

Kirk Keaton

One of the "nice" boys who is naive and has difficulty with girls.

Tiffany Houston

A cute, bubbly teenager from the 80's, who is innocent, naïve and doe-eyed about boys and love.

Cyndi Gibson

A street-smart, boy-wary member of Tiffany's posse who has a crush on Michael but always settles for other boys.

Mel Easton

One of the elite "Cool Girls," she is the twin sister of Kim who loves to rock out as a backup to the group.

Kim Easton

The twin sister of Mel and friend of Cyndi. Kim is a party-loving cheerleader who does not do well in school.

Michael Feldman

The coolest guy in the school who has the attention of all the girls. When the girls are not around, he is a mean manipulative oaf who picks on smaller kids.

Billy Arnold

A popular, athletic guy who appears tough and is revered yet has little backbone without Michael.

Lionel Astley

He is a follower and not quite as cool as the other guys in his posse, but is tolerated by the girls.

Huey Jackson

The final guy to round out the group of Michael Feldman's friends. Not much else to be said - big hair, wears clothes that were cool at the time, but now just look like fluorescent mismatches of colour. Huey is an 80's tragic - he is the only member of the cool group to go as far as wearing a white Michael Jackson glove - as was the fashion of the day!

Feargal Mcferrin

The sensitive school nerd. He is supremely intelligent, but his visions of life in the new millennium are always mocked.

Eileen Reagan

The new arrival, charming and full of life and vitality. She is a dreamer who longs for the day when she has a boyfriend.

Laura Wilde

Debbie's best friend. She is awkward and has trouble with boys, but is a nice girl.

Debbie Fox

Laura's competitive best friend. She lies about her fantasy relationships with celebrities.
Gender: Female

Ms. Sheena Brannigan

An outwardly reserved and slightly conservative Senior Students Coordinator who has a wild past.

Mr. Stevie Cocker

The Deputy Principal and math teacher at William Ocean High School who has strong feelings for Sheena.
